

i am against further consolidation of the media and would like more public debate before any decisions are made.i will be calling my representitives to express my strong felling on this subject.